

Contents

The Whole Earth Telescope Network's August 2008 Workshop by H. L. Shipman	5
Do You Need the WET: A Modest Proposal by S. J. Kleinman	13
Preliminary Asteroseismology of EC20058-5234 and Limits on Plasmon Neutrinos by A. Bischoff-Kim	16
An Update on XCOV25: GD358 by J. L. Provencal, H. L. Shipman, and the WET TEAM	25
What We Can Learn from the Light Curves of GD 358 and PG 1351+489 by M. H. Montgomery	38
On Coordinating Time Series Spectroscopy with the WET by S. E. Thompson	50
Preliminary Results in White Dwarf Research by a New Group by M. Páparó, E. Plachy, L. Molnár, P. I. Pápics, Zs. Bognár, N. Sztankó, Gy. Kerekes, A. Már & E. Bokor	59
Recent observations of WD1524 at MIRO and participation in WET observing program by H. O. Vats & K. S. Baliyan	71
Introducing SPA, "The Stellar Photometry Assistant" by J. Dalessio, J. L. Provencal & A. Kanaan	78

The entire conference enjoying the sunshine. Back row: Harry Shipman, Steve Kawaler, Staszek Zola, Michael Montgomery, Fergal Mullally, Reed Riddle, Xiaojun Jiang, Scot Kleinman. Front Row: James Dalessio, Margit Paparo, S. O. Kepler, Hari Om Vats, Agnes Kim, Susan Thompson, Gerard Vauclair, Atsuko Nitta. Photographer: Judi Provencal