

61 (p. 177)

The Yellow River looking down stream west-north-west from a bluff called Ta-ra-lung, elevation 10620 feet. Picea asperata Mast. forests on the left. Juniperus Przewalskii Kom., in foreground. West of Ra-gya Gom-pa.

62 (p. 177)

The Yellow River gorges as seen from a pass north of Nya-rug nang (valley), elevation 11,850 feet, looking down stream westnorthwest. The trees on the spur in foreground are Juniperus tibetica Kom., spruces Picea asperata on the slopes to the left.